

Dosbarth Heulwen	Myths and Legends WALT: Create a batik style image. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recap on the story of Bran and the Bees. • Look at and discuss what happens to candles when heated and when cooled back down. • Look at and discuss the art style of batik. • Create a batik style piece of art using bees as inspiration. • Draw a bee (hot draw) showing knowledge gained over the half term. 	Myths and Legends The legend of Bran and the Bees Recap on the story of Bran and the Bees? Pupils use the class story map (completed with Mrs Tavner last term) to recount the story. Recap on the main features of bees –how many body parts does a bee have? Can you name the body parts (Head, thorax and abdomen)? How many legs does a bee have? What do bees use to feel about with? Why are bees so important to us? All About Bees Activity 1: Batik (enterprise project, 2 weeks) Batik <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look at a selection of candles and ask pupils what they are made of? What happens when the candles are lit? Discuss the words melting, liquid and solid. What will happen to the candles if they are left to cool down? Show pupils a short video on how candles melt and then harden again. What other things melt into a liquid when heated? Melting candles
--------------------------------	---	--	--

		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Look at and discuss batik – what is batik? How are batik images created?• Discuss with pupils how we will create batik style pictures using glue instead of bee’s wax.• Draw a pattern, using glue, on a piece of fabric.• When the glue is dry, paint the fabric using fabric paints.• Fabric is then washed until the glue disappears.• Use the fabric to create a wall hanging. Activity 2: Drawing a bee (Hot draw) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Draw a bee (hot draw). Using the knowledge gained over the half term, draw the main features of a honey bee.• Compare the drawing to the cold draw completed at the beginning of the half term.
--	--	---	--