

Languages Literacy and Communication:

Texts and Genres for this term:

- The Good Samaritan
- Aesop's Fables
- Castell Coch- Cadw information
- See Inside a Castle

Recount, Explanation and Narrative.

Cross-curricular links will be made throughout this topic to ensure appropriate coverage of key skills.

Important Information

PE - Wednesday

Reading- To access Oxford Reading online
(passwords found in SeeSaw)

Health and Wellbeing:

Mental Health: Discussing emotions and what can calm us or create positive emotions. Daily mindfulness sessions, well being team work skills activities.

Forest school activities.

Physical Health: Learning and performing a traditional Welsh dance.

RSE: Dreams and Goals, Healthy Me.

4 Core Purposes

Ethical Informed Citizens

Healthy Confident Individuals

Enterprising Creative Contributors

Ambitious Capable Learners

Camu Trwy Cymru

Leaping Through Wales

Events, Trips, Visits and Visitors:

Castell Coch
Bedwas Library Visit
Whole School Community Event- Reading Festival- 20.03.24

Expressive Arts:

Design a castle- Using Education Minecraft
Use old fashioned methods to create fabric dye.

Design their own wallpaper based on Aesop's fables.

Mathematics and Numeracy:

Addition and Subtraction

Inverse of addition and subtraction

Measure- Length and Height

Measure- Capacity and Mass

Humanities:

History: Power of Leadership, Peace, Conflict and Cooperation- Castle Coch's history, focusing on Medieval period (Design of a castle, daily life in a castle).

Geography: Migration, Settlements- How the Normans invaded. Where there are castles in Wales and why they were important.

RVE: Values and Ethic. Looking at the Good Samaritan and Good Wolf, Bad Wolf- Discussing emotions and values. How we can feed our behaviours.